

On an ordinary day in a sleepy village, the most extraordinary invitations fall from the sky. THE FLYING CIRCUS is coming! There's an invitation for everyone, even the little ones. When the people gather at the appointed time, a flying circus tent descends, and the spectacle begins. Join the villagers as they experience a magical show filled with laughter, awe, and a lesson they'll never forget.

*An enchanting picture book with an essential message from nature.
For children ages 7 years and up.*
